

have you heard stone ring?

September 8th

join us in celebrating our song, all ages welcome

Up Top, down Under, up Tout, out Bill, ...you may well hear a shanty in the nooks and crannies of Portland inspired by stories and conversations with Portlanders and those who have made the island their home.

soundingstone is a b-side commission hosted by PSQT

PSQT Community Stone Workspace is part financed by the European Agricultural Fund for European Development 2007 - 2013

10.30am - SONGLINES a 'Walk on the Wild Side' starting out from the Drill Hall, Easton Lane, Portland

Stimulate your appetite and knowledge of the island with a 2hr morning walk led by wildlife enthusiasts Lyn and Tom from Wild about Weymouth and Portland. You may well hear a shanty along the way!

1pm onwards - BRING & SHARE MEAL
The Drill Hall, Easton Lane, Portland

with local singers and musicians - bring a dish to share
The beautiful tones of stone ringing will be heard in the Drill Hall Gallery where the Lithophone created by Portland Sculpture and Quarry Trust takes centre stage.

We'd love our song to be heard in all sorts of different places during the Paralympics (4 - 8 Sept)
* if you're up for singing or playing it please get in touch - email via the website (URL and phone no's below)

Annie & Belle are very grateful to everyone involved especially to all those who have welcomed them into their homes and workplaces... thank you. You can find out more about these adventures and the people we've met on our website
